

Chaperones and Support Persons

A chaperone may be offered or suggested by your doctor or nurse for certain examinations and procedures. You have the choice to decline or accept.

Would you like a Chaperone?

- All patients are entitled to request one for any appointment or procedure
- They are usually an approved medical professional
- Let us know when you book or talk with reception when you arrive

Are you bringing a Support Person?

- Let our reception know if you want someone to stay with you during your appointment
- These are usually family members or friends
