

PHARMAC change of rules for B12 injections

Due to a PHARMAC change in rules to the administering of B12 injections, patients will now need to be prescribed B12 before we are able to give the injection.

Please make sure you have ordered your prescription before your next B12 injection appointment and have collected the B12 from the pharmacy.

We will no longer have B12 in stock at the centre.

